

Gallows Signs

GS

- Clear colour contrast
- Raised characters
- Mounting bracket included
- Easily fitted and removed
- Just one item in the Configure range of over 200 auxiliary aids and adaptive products

Good signage significantly improves the ease with which both disabled and non-disabled people gain access to products and services.

Gallows signs positioned at a cashier's desk within stores enable customers to identify help points from a distance. The 'Please ask staff for help' sign ensures that customers are comfortable in asking staff for assistance and identifies the counter as an access point for disabled customers who might require auxiliary aids or additional assistance.
